

Job Opportunity: Adel Beck Secure Children's Home

Employer:	Leeds City Council, Children's Services
Position:	Deputy Service Manager
Location:	Adel Beck SCH, Adel, Leeds, West Yorkshire
Salary:	£48,652 to £53,517
Posted:	Tuesday 21 March 2017
Closes:	Tuesday 04 April 2017

Adel Beck is a 24 bedded Secure Children's Home licensed by the Department for Education (DfE) on behalf of the Secretary of State, inspected by the Office for Education, Children's Services and Skills (OfSTED), managed by Leeds City Council, Children's Services and monitored by the Youth Justice Board (England and Wales). The overall performance of the home is currently judged by OfSTED as OUTSTANDING.

We provide on-site Care, Education, Offending Behaviour Interventions and Personal Development to young people (males and females) aged between 10 - 18 who have been remanded or sentenced by a court or whose behaviour cannot be managed in any other form of accommodation. These services are supported by on-site Business Support, Speech and Language Therapy, NHS Primary Care and both Forensic and Clinical Psychology and Psychiatric services (CAMHS).

Our vision is "Working together to inspire change and development in attitude, behaviour, learning and emotions".

We are seeking a Deputy Service Manager (Secure Accommodation) who will directly line manage our three 8 bedded secure units and lead on restorative practice. The successful candidate will be a proven outstanding leader who can display motivational leadership using restorative approaches.

If you are a current senior leader with a successful track record of sustained improvement, then this position offers an excellent opportunity to challenge yourself in the newest, most technologically advanced secure children's home in in the UK. The Deputy Service Manager will be expected to ensure the home is fully compliant with the OfSTED framework, Children's Home Regulations and Quality Standards and have a thorough understanding of current Youth Justice practice and future thinking.

You will need to be a dynamic senior leader who is committed to the challenge of working with vulnerable young people within a multi-disciplinary environment. You should have the creativity and vision to inspire and lead change but also the focus to ensure successful outcomes are reached. You must be confident and approachable, with an optimistic 'can-do' attitude and have the skills to build, lead and motivate less experienced staff.

To the successful candidate, we offer a supportive and successful senior leadership team and the opportunity for further professional development.

This is an exciting opportunity to work in a building that has state of the art technology for both security and teaching and learning and is designed to provide young people with a living and learning environment that is safe, secure and encourages and inspires positive change.

Leeds Children's Service and Adel Beck are committed to safeguarding and promoting the welfare of children and young people and expects all staff at all levels to promote and adhere to the "Child Friendly Leeds" Strategy and principles.

To apply for this position please visit www.leeds.gov.uk/jobs (job reference 15669)

If the prospect of working within a progressive and restorative secure environment excites you, then please contact Francis N'Jie, Service Manager (Secure Accommodation) on 03330 000450 for more information.

We are committed to safeguarding and promoting the welfare of children, young people and vulnerable adults. We promote diversity and want a workforce that reflects the population of Leeds.

A Disclosure and Barring Service (DBS) check will be carried out on preferred candidates.